

entire body of rules to be suspended by the original motion, then that certainly would be divisible.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are there two rules involved in this motion that are to be suspended?

PRESIDENT: In my opinion, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I mean, how is the amendment drafted?

PRESIDENT: The motion reads, "I move to suspend the rules and vote immediately without further debate on amendment to the Beutler amendment."

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's crazy. What rules? I want to know what rules? If it's plural, obviously it's more than one. You said one rule.

PRESIDENT: Well, no one raised any question as to the propriety of the motion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well I want to divide the question. There are rules...

PRESIDENT: How do you propose to divide the question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well you tell me which rules are involved then. What are they voting to suspend?

PRESIDENT: Well we're talking about the Legislature's rules.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Which rules of the Legislature?

PRESIDENT: All of them.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And that can't be divided?

PRESIDENT: I said if you offer a motion, if the motion is to suspend the rules, that is the motion itself. That is the sentence. Certainly that motion could be divided because you could take into consideration the rules that are in the entire body of the Legislature's rules.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So as that motion is drafted, I want you to tell me, Mr. Chairman, which rules are to be suspended by
